

HOMETOWN NEWS RELEASE
for the Texas Municipal League
and the
Texas Association of Mayors, Councilmembers and Commissioners
Newly Elected City Officials' Orientation

The following is a hometown press release for your use. This press release can be used to notify your local media of your attendance at the Newly Elected City Officials' Orientation. The press release contains general information regarding the program and may be changed to include your personal experiences.

You may fill in the blanks and use the press release as it is on your city's letterhead, or change the press release to meet your needs. This format is meant to be a sample.

This press release is provided compliments of the Texas Municipal League.

To: News Editor
Name of Publication
Mailing Address

YOUR NAME AND TITLE was in San Antonio, August 17-18, 2023 to attend the Newly Elected City Officials' Orientation, sponsored by the Texas Municipal League and the Texas Association of Mayors, Councilmembers and Commissioners, an affiliate of the Texas Municipal League. Elected officials from all over the state attended the meeting, which provided an opportunity for newly elected city officials to voluntarily enhance their knowledge of city government and sharpen their leadership skills. In addition, the orientation offered an opportunity to visit with elected officials from across Texas to learn how other cities are coping with similar challenges.

During this event, attendees were offered sessions on topics such as leadership, open government, parliamentary procedure, ethics, economic development, revenue sources, and land use.

The Texas Municipal League is a voluntary association of 1,175 Texas cities. The City of YOUR CITY NAME is a member of the Texas Municipal League.